Iniki

It's been almost ten years since the Hawaiian islands have been hit by a hurricane. On the 23rd of November 1982, selected HIANG members were ordered to active duty to prepare for the arrival of Hurricane Iwa. It arrived as predicted, and the island of Kauai, including our own assets, received considerable damage. The HIANG was there to help in the relief and recovery. We were hoping it was the last. It seems like only yesterday.

On Friday afternoon, the 11th of September, the HIANG was alerted once again to prepare for Hurricane Iniki. What we thought was another "serious" one that would pass us down south started heading our way. This time it was a 300-mile-wide hurricane, and it was headed right towards us with sustained winds of 145 miles per hour and gusts to 180 miles per hour. We were hoping and praying it would take the usual northwesterly direction, if not westerly. It didn't.

At the last minute, the hurricane shifted to the north, and the sirens went off. Hurricane Iniki mostly spared Oahu, but, again, our next door neighbor, Kauai, was hit. The eye of the storm went directly over the garden island. Kauai was devastated. Niihau received some damage, as well.

The Hawaii Air National Guard is there, once again, to help with relief and recovery. With the help of our cala-bash cousins in California, Air Guard aircraft are continuously going back and forth from Kauai bringing supplies from and passengers to Oahu. Hickam Command Post, for one, has been humming.

We're eating MREs today because the 154th Services Flight was tasked last weekend to provide meals in Princeville. The 154th Security Police Flight and the 154th Civil Engineering Flight were also deployed. And, of course, the 201st CCGP was activated to provide power and communications support. Now, volunteers are being called for to assist in the cleanup of Kauai.

As if Kauai didn't suffer enough last time, this time, everything is needed to bring the island back to life. Power lines, telephone lines and water has to be completely restored, not to mention homes that have to be rebuilt, and lives that have to be restored.

The Garden Isle looks like a war zone. Lihue airport looks like Da Nang, Viet Nam, with C-5s, C-130s, C-141s, and helicopters literally touching and going around the clock, airlifting passengers, and bringing in fresh water, food and desperately needed supplies.

At last count, our own HIANG C-130 crews flew 43 sorties from Saturday, September 11 through Thursday, September 17. They hauled 96 tons of equipment and supplies, and carried 532 passengers. Our hats are off to their great effort, and to all the guys that humped day and night loading and off-loading the aircraft, assisting the passengers, and getting the supplies out to where they were needed.

Local members of the 154th Composite Group expressed their gratitude that the damage expected on Oahu never happened. We all feel terrible for the people on Kauai, especially our ohana. We are well aware that the same thing could have easily happened to us. This is indeed a time when you realize what's really important to you. Now is the time to help our neighbors as best we can.

154 COMPG Reacts to Hurricane Iniki

With the expected arrival of Hurricane Iniki on Friday, September 11, response within the 154th Composite Group began on September 10, with the securing of HIANG aircraft and equipment. A 24-hour Operations Center was established on September 11, at the 199 FS Combat Alert Center to coordinate all necessary actions relating to the hurricane.

At 8:45 PM on September 11, the 154 SVF was activated to provide a Mobile Field Kitchen Team to support the relief effort on Kauai, and on September 12, left with 22 members.

On Saturday, September 12, airlift to Kauai was initiated by Coast Guard and HIANG C-130 aircraft. These were joined later that afternoon by 6 California ANG C-130s. Palletizing and loading of equipment and supplies were accomplished at the 203 ARS with many volunteer guardsmen supporting the effort. Additional airlift support was provided by Air Force C-141s and C-5s.

On Sunday, September 13, 5 members of the 154 CES departed for Kauai with tents, generators, cots, and lights to support the 22-member contingent from the 154 SVF.

On September 13, additional HIANG manpower requirements were established to provide ANG liaisons to control centers at the State Civil Defense, HQ PACAF Crisis Action Team (CAT), 15th ABW Air Mobility Command Center (AMC), Hickam Air Passenger Terminal, Hickam Air Cargo Terminal, and later to the JTF Mobility Control Center at USARPAC. This requirement will continue throughout the relief effort.

At 7:00 PM on September 13, the 154th Security Police Flight was called to State active duty. Twenty eight guardsmen departed for Kauai on September 14 and were tasked to provide area security at Lihue Airport.

On September 14, airlift operations were transferred from the 203 ARS to the 15th ABW AMC.

At 4:00 PM on September 16, the 154th Civil Engineering Squadron was activated, and 86 members of the unit departed for Kauai on September 18.

On September 19, a force of 60 air guardsmen from the Composite Group, who received election worker training at Hickam AFB, were flown to Kauai to supplement civilian precinct workers at various primary election sites.

URGENTLY NEEDED - Presently, we are looking for 500 air guardsmen to volunteer to help in the cleanup effort in Kauai. These individuals will be departing for Kauai on Monday, September 21 and are scheduled to return on Sunday, September 27. Your assistance will be appreciated!

TODAY - The Kauai relief effort currently underway has had a major impact on 154th Composite Group scheduled activities, and necessitates the following changes:

1. The September 19th Air Defense Exercise has been cancelled and will be rescheduled to October 3rd.
2. The 154th COMPG Family Day scheduled for September 20th is cancelled and will be rescheduled to a future date to be determined.
3. The Operational Readiness Evaluation (ORE) scheduled for October 1 thru 8 is cancelled and will be rescheduled in conjunction with the November UTA.

Remember, the Operational Readiness Inspection (ORI) is scheduled for the December and January UTAs until further notice.

Finally, I wish to extend my personal THANK YOU for your effort in continuing to perform your duties as a member of the 154 COMPG in an exemplary manner when being tasked to the maximum in the support of the relief effort. MAHALO NUI LOA.

PERSPECTIVE

A S T O R S

By Captain (Capt) Robert Nagamine

Hurricane Iniki inflicted so much destruction to Kauai that it will take a long time before things get back to normal. The damage was so extensive that many people might have more questions than there are answers. Regardless, many of those questions must be asked. Some of the questions might be; (1) Why me? (2) Who's responsible for what has happened? (3) When will we see "the light at the end of the tunnel"? (4) Will a disaster strike again?, and (5) Where do we go from here? Many who were hit the hardest will need to come to grips with reaffirming what is important to them. The following are thoughts that I have been processing in my mind.

"Why me?" is a question often asked. There are no adequate answers. In this particular case, the weather people said that it's all by chance that Kauai was directly hit. This seems unfair. Kauai had more than its share during Hurricane Iwa about ten years ago. It's unfortunate. I was hoping and praying for the best for my friends on Kauai, especially my 150 ACWS and 154 TCS friends.

We sometimes ask this same question when faced with other unfortunate situations. But the more we're aware of other people around us, the more we see that other people have their share of problems, also. They often go through different types of hurricanes at their own appointed times. Emotional hurricanes. Spiritual hurricanes. Financial hurricanes. Other hurricanes.

When we see this, we then realize that we're in the same boat. We belong to each other. What matters more than "why me?" is how we together respond to a situation like Iniki.

Who's responsible? Some people blame mother nature, others blame weather patterns due to how we have treated our environment and a few blame God. Personally, I doubt that God wanted this to happen. Kauai people are among the friendliest and nicest people around anywhere. Why would God want destruction upon them? In the midst of unanswered questions, there is a Scripture that applies here: "Love your neighbor as yourself." I think we will see the "light at the end of the tunnel" when we love God and our neighbors. Loving our neighbors means helping them in times of need. Hope becomes real when we see people pulling together.

There's no guarantee that our paradise in Hawaii will be disaster-proof. After recent Hurricane Iwa in '82, and now Iniki, we must realize that it can happen again.

A big lesson from this hurricane is the value of family and friends. Perhaps, we have stressed the importance of material possessions more than is good for us. Family and friends need to be stressed more.

So, where do we go from here? Let's appreciate and improve our relationships with our family and friends. Here's our chance to try to make good things happen out of a bad situation. Here's a chance for those who have to share with those who have not. Let's help one another. Especially now, we need God and one another. Let's hang tough together.

For the Family

This month, there's not much to say, but much to do. Hurricane Iniki said it all and left us with much to do. The families on Kauai need our help.

This weekend our 154 Composite Group is holding a relief effort for Kauai called Hurricane Iniki Relief. We are looking for donations of money, non-perishable goods, D-cell batteries, 3.5 - 5 kw generators, Coleman fuel, kerosene, candles, plastic, polyethylene (heavy duty), 6-volt batteries, Coleman stoves, propane tanks (for lanterns), 6-volt fluorescent lamps, dry ice, and tents, 20' wide, black, etc. These items will be sent to help our HIANG ohana on Kauai, as well as the Kauai community itself.

Please give as it is fitting with your situation and the resources you have. We ask that you give

CAMS News and Views

By: MSgt. Fred M. Iiga, Jr.

September has traditionally been a month to reflect on the many accomplishments attained during the year. September has been the month we've held our annual Family Day festivities, which served to bring our families together to renew friendships as well as make new friends. However, the forces of nature are unrelenting as was witnessed in the last four weeks. Hurricane Andrew slammed into Florida and Louisiana with so much force it caused billions of dollars in damage. The major television networks broadcast much of the devastation to the world, but we in Hawaii were halfway around the world. Not to worry, right? Alas, tropical storm INIKI was swirling around the Pacific, coming at us at a slow pace. Suddenly, 'INIKI' decides to get nasty as wind velocity starts to increase dramatically. What was a tropical storm is now a full blown hurricane sort of heading away from us. Great news as it continues to move away, but then the eye turns and heads in a northerly direction. Evacuation orders are given as a precaution, gas stations are in gridlock and supermarkets are suddenly filled to capacity with folks trying to stock up on essential items. The eye of 'INIKI' roars into northwest Kauai, destroying everything in its path. Waianae, on the leeward coast of Oahu, suffered the most damage on this island. As we watched the local news, one would think that the news station was broadcasting re-runs at what you've got, look at what you think you need, decide how you're going to obtain and store the items, and every now and then, practice your evacuation procedures. The people on Kauai and from Waianae have expressed their desires on what items they really need to put their lives, and homes, back together. It would behoove us to list down all those items and see if we have enough of those same items for our own homes so that we can recover and survive. Just a thought!!! Anyway, the Group is currently sponsoring a 154 Composite Group Hurricane INIKI Relief Fund to collect emergency items for the storm victims this weekend. Collection points are in the Hangar, 199FS (2nd Fl), 154 RMS Warehouse and 169 AC&W Orderly Room. Many items are in need by the 'victims', so please donate from the heart...For news of the Squadron...Would like to welcome SrA. Dwayne Lim as he joins the Weapons Release Shop. Welcome home goes to TSgt. Rodrigo Academia as he recently returned from Kadena AB (Japan) and TSgt. James Chun as he returns from the NCO Academy. Welcome to the world goes to Aaron Abilla as he joins mom and dad, Wendy and TSgt. William Abilla...Congrats to our newest promotee, SSgt. William Boyer. Wear 'em with pride...MSgt. Lester Ho has a PME news flash. Beginning 1 Jan 1993, only technical sergeants may attend the NCO Academy in residence. The school will not accept staff sergeants after January. See Lester for more information...Make sure you've bought your tickets for the CAM Sq Recognition Banquet on 9 Oct. That's a 3-day holiday, so stay in Waikiki and enjoy the weekend...And don't forget to get your tickets for the HIANG Awards Banquet to be held at the Hickam Officers Club on 20 Nov...Although the ORE has been postponed, we still need you all to be focused on the upcoming ORI. See your supervisor for information...As we close fiscal year 1992, I'd like to thank the Public Affairs Office for their outstanding support this year. We are constantly ribbing each other about the length of my news articles, but they've always been able to support the CAM Squadron. A Key To Your Future

1992 Retention Challenge - Retention Through Motivation

by MSgt. Iris Kabazawa

There are many factors which influence our people to stay in the Air Guard. Some tangible reasons are - retirement, pay, education, and the numerous benefits and privileges that play an important part. Surveys, interviews and questionnaires, however, show that there is much more. Intangible factors, such as job satisfaction, challenging work, family involvement, patriotism, etc..., are strong motivators to remain in the Guard. Retention is not and has never been just a dollar issue. Although compensation is important in retention, decisions are based on much more than money.

Here lies a challenge for all HIANG leaders. Our words and actions can influence our people's decisions. Take the time to bring out and find the positive and good in people. Our positive leadership, integrity, willingness to sacrifice and most importantly, our genuine concern for the welfare of our people will influence their decisions to remain in the HIANG.

We, the HIANG leaders, are the key ingredients in our continuing efforts to retain quality men and women for the future of the Hawaii Air National Guard. Your commitment and support to the ever changing retention challenges in the 1990's is appreciated.

Your Career and Education Manager is committed to this challenge. If you need any information, assistance or even an ear to listen to your ever mounting frustrations, call or drop in at any time. We are looking forward to working with each of you in meeting this year's retention challenge. Questions may be referred to the Education Office.

Mizumoto Promoted to Brigadier General

Brig. Gen. Allen M. Mizumoto was pinned by Maj. Gen. Edward V. Richardson, the Adjutant General, State Department of Defense on August 19th.

Mizumoto, 55, has served as commander, Hawaii Air National Guard since July 1991. His promotion to brigadier general was effective August 13th.

General Mizumoto enlisted in the Hawaii Air National Guard as a fire control systems mechanic in 1954. He rose to the rank of senior master sergeant before accepting a direct commission in 1965. As an officer, the general worked in avionics, communications-electronics and ground electronics before becoming the deputy commander for maintenance, 154th Composite Group in 1979.

Turn Down Your Fat-O-Stat

September 19-25 the American Heart Association-Hawaii Affiliate will sponsor the 1992 Food Festival. Emphasis will be on the benefits of reducing fat, cholesterol and sodium in your diet. Volunteers will be at major super markets offering:

- Information
- Blood pressure checks
- Coupons for heart-healthy products
- Cholesterol screenings

"The average person should limit fat-intake to 30 percent of total calories. Of that amount, less than 10 percent of the total calories should come from saturated fat (fats that are generally solid at room temperature like butter, cheese, fat in meats, etc.)", according to Ed Hoover, Affiliate Programs chairman.

If you aren't able to donate anything this weekend and desire to give, please donate to any one of many organizations, including the Red Cross, Salvation Army, etc. that will help Kauai or the Waianae coast (they need help also). Thank you for your help.

HIANG Awards Banquet

The Annual HIANG Awards Banquet will soon be here! The date is November 20th, and it'll be held at the Hickam Officers Club.

Dinner will be buffet style. There will be music, entertainment, dancing and door prizes. The cost is $25.00 and it's open to all HIANG members, their families, guests and retirees. The deadline to sign up is September 21st. See you there!

Social Actions

by TSgt. Carswell Ross

Change to the Definition of Sexual Harassment

The Social Actions Office has recently received an Interim Message Change to Air Force Regulation 30-2, Social Actions Program. This change revises the definition of sexual harassment. The revised definition now states: "Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination that involves unwelcomed sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

(A) Submission to or rejection of such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term of condition of a person's job, pay, or career, or

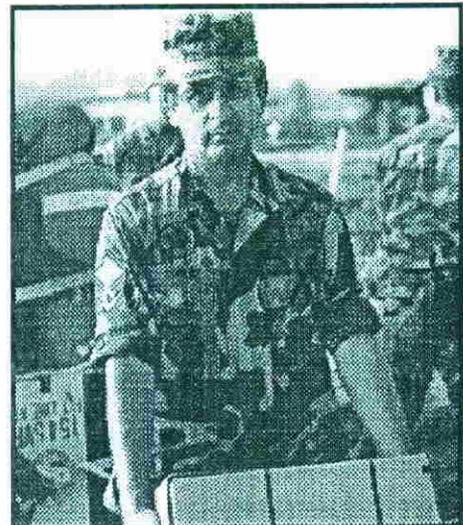

(B) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as a basis for career or employment decisions affecting that person, or

(C) Such conduct interferes with an individual's performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive environment, or

(D) Any person in a supervisory or command position uses or condones implicit or explicit sexual behavior to control, influence or affect the career, pay, or job of a military member of civilian employee, or

(E) Any military member or civilian employee makes deliberate or repeated unwelcomed verbal comments, gestures, or physical contact of a sexual nature."

If you have any questions about this revised definition of sexual harassment, human relations issues and/or substance abuse, contact Social Actions at 449-8000.

154th CAM SQ Captures Softball Championship

By CMSgt. Cornwall S. Matsusaka

Sixteen Army and Air National Guard softball teams participated in this year's HING State Softball Tournament August 29-30 at Hickam AFB, Hawaii.

A 487th Field Artillery victory over front runner 154 CAM-A team forced the Open Division into a "sudden death" championship game. Playing in a "must win" situation, the 154 CAM-A team overcame a two-run deficit to beat the artillery men from Fort Ruger 6-4 to capture the 1992 Hawaii National Guard

State Softball Tour-championship
CAM-A team put together a 12-hit

attack

Much interest (and noise) was generated in the Masters (40+) Division. Mahalo to the Kauai Makule team for the music between innings and for the tournament's most colorful uniform. The Masters Division ended in a three-way tie for first place. The HQ STARC was given the Masters trophy based on the most runs scored. HQ STARC was managed by MSgt. Richard Tabe.

Masters Division Standings

HQ STARC-	2-1
154 COMPG-	2-1
Air-Kauai-	2-1
29 Inf Bde-	0-3

After the tournament, the battle cry for most teams was ... "Wait till next year".

Mahalo to Maj. Gen. Edward V. Richardson and Lt Col. Melvin Matsui, HING Special Services President, for their moral and financial support; to SFC Ross Hoopai (Tournament Chairman) and Sgt. Marshall Harvest (Tournament Coordinator) for a well organized, coordinated, and enjoyable state tournament; to MSgt. Larry Kauleinamoku for chairing the food concession booth; and to Mr. Larry Carvalho (Umpires) and Mr. Douglas Gianetti, 15 ABW/SSRS (Base Facility), for their support of the Hawaii National Guard. The biggest Mahalo to the some 325 army/air participants... especially to our neighbor island guardmembers for adding color to the tournament and for making it a complete Hawaii National Guard family.

HIANG Golf Tournament

The 14th All HIANG Golf Tournament, held at Mamala Bay Golf Course, Hickam AFB, on August 17th brought together Air Guard members from units on Oahu and Kauai. Special guests at the tournament included Senator Daniel Akaka, Mr. Danny Kaleiikini, Mr. Herman Wedemeyer, and Mr. Ken Kiyabu.

Good food, drinks, camaraderie, and fellowship was had by all at the luncheon following the tournament. An unending list of awards and door prizes highlighted the day. The individual low net and the perpetual trophy was won by SMSgt. Bill Tabe of the 150th ACWS. He shot a sizzling 83-19-64. Congratulations, Bill!

A special commemorative souvenir was presented to Maj. Gen. Edward Richardson and Brig. Gen. Allen Mizumoto by Mr. Danny Kaleiikini celebrating 25 years at the Kahala Hilton Hotel.

MSgt. Carl Wai, the tournament chairman, expressed special thanks to all his committee members, volunteers and everyone who pitched in to help make the tournament a tremendous success.
